

Art as Communication

A Class in Health & Wellness

Instructed by: Joan Daves

In our 4 week course, Art as Communication, you will be guided in the exploration of your experiences of loss and homelessness by our talented instructor. Each week you will be using different mediums as you create your art as a response to classroom conversations. Afterwards, you'll be sharing your artwork with your classmates, a small group of people who have lived through similar experiences. Learn the skill of using art as a form of communication, so that you can continue doing so, even after this class has ended.
